

Get To Zero CO2

Thanks to our Media Sponsor, The Daily Sun!

Get To Zero
CO2

Get To Zero
CO2
Keynote

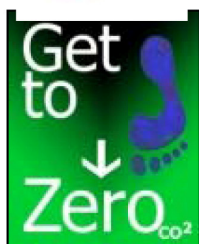

Get To Zero
CO2
Registration

Get To Zero
CO2
Presenters

Manufactured
Landscapes

Get To Zero CO2
Professionals

ZeroCO2
Partnerships

Friday, November 14, 2008

The Red Jacket Mountain View Resort

8:00 a.m. Registration

9:00 a.m. Keynote - Kevin Lyons, Ph.D., Director of Purchasing, Rutgers University

11:30 – 1 p.m. – Lunch Exhibits will run all day!

Professional Track: Kevin Lyons: Green Purchasing & Sustainability 101

Analysis/ROI Analysis, Supply Chain Archaeology, Developing Implementation Strategies, Eprocurement, Defining Sustainability for Business, Utilizing Case Studies-Private Sector Domestic and International, Technological Trends,
Where to Look for Help... and others.

9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Part I

1:15 to 3 p.m. Part II

3:00 to 5 p.m. Part III

Conference Hotline!

603.725.4380

Community Track

9:30 a.m. – Carroll County Transportation Committee
Community Info Session - Patrick C. Herlihy,
Transportation Coordinator, NH H&HS

1 to 5 p.m. – Patti & Doug Wood, How Green is My Town
Grassroots Environmental Education

A comprehensive program designed to provide community leaders and residents with practical, achievable solutions for addressing issues of global warming, sustainability and environmental health at the local level.

1:15 to 3 p.m. - Community Leadership and Collaboration

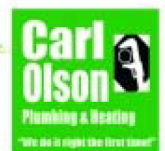

3 to 5 p.m. - Case Studies in Successful Green Communities

Join us after Get To Zero CO2 for:

5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Join us for the Inaugural Meeting of the Mount Washington Valley Green Drinks Chapter. Green Drinks was started in London in 1989 to provide an opportunity for innovative people could meet on a regular basis to talk about sustainability. This meeting is open to the public and attendance at Get To Zero CO2 is not required in order to join us! Ca$h bar!

Register
Today!

Tamworth Volunteer Energy Committee

